

What is a Branch House?

The Branch House is the place in the packing organization where what the packing plant does for you is put where you can use it.

Both are the natural result of growth and development in the living thing they belong to.

Swift & Company Branch Houses are located in distributing centers all over the country. They are fitted out with refrigerating equipment to keep meat cool, sweet and fresh.

Each one is in personal charge of a man who believes in what Swift & Company is doing for people and wants to help do it.

They are directed by men who have spent years learning how to get better meat cheaper in the places where it is needed.

Meat is shipped to the branch houses direct from the packing plants in Swift & Company's refrigerator cars, in such quantities that it can be disposed of while fresh and sweet.

Your meat dealer comes here to buy your meat for you—unless someone else can treat him better than we can.

So you need the branch house in order to live well; and the branch house and the packing plant need each other, in order to be useful to you.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

RELICS TELL OF BIG GOLD BOOM

Buildings in Tombstone, Ariz.; Recall Days of Camp's Glory.

WILD TIMES THERE

Bird-Cage Opera House, Can-Can Restaurant and Red-Light Saloon, About All That Remains of Gold Camp.

Tucson, Ariz.—The Bird-Cage opera house, the Can-Can restaurant, the Red Light saloon and the Tucson stage office remain as relics of the one-time glory of Tombstone, Ariz., as a mining camp. These old buildings were once the scenes of the pioneer Arizona mining camp, but are now occupied by bats and are slowly falling into decay.

The old opera house was the most famous theater in the southwest during the early frontier days. It is a rambling two-story structure with the glass broken by the elements. A long bar occupies one end of the building while the piano player's platform faces it at the opposite end. It was on this platform that the famous sign hung, which read: "Do not shoot the piano player. He is doing the best he can." The most famous variety performers from San Francisco appeared on the stage and lithographs announcing their coming still hung on the walls. Many shooting affairs took place in the Bird Cage and it has been the scene of a number of western stories of frontier life.

Monument Erected for Settler.

At the Can-Can restaurant steaks once sold for $5 each and men waited in line to be served when the Tombstone gold boom was at its height. The Red Light saloon was a gambling house and the discarded roulette and faro layouts may be seen stacked in the rear of the building with its broken bar and mahogany fixtures. The stage office is an adobe building with a corral flanking it, and it was here that the stage from Tucson pulled in each day. Another relic of old Tombstone is the monument erected to Ed Schefflin, the founder of the town and the man who gave it its name. The monument is built of boulders from Schefflin's first mine.

It Was on This Platform That the Famous Sign Hung.

A cowboy in the Panhandle district of Texas told Schefflin that he would not find gold but a tombstone in quest of a mine in the Huachuca mountains. Schefflin found gold and named the town Tombstone, remembering his friend's prediction.

HAMMER MEETS COLD IRON

Big Spree Follows and Two Immortals Find Themselves Before Bar of Justice.

Middletown, O.—When a hammer meets cold iron everyone can guess what is going to happen.

A couple of fellows went for an auto ride here. During the progress of this ride the men accumulated an assortment of wet goods. After a perilous career they were arrested on the Dixie highway and were taken before a justice of the peace, charged with driving an auto while intoxicated.

The two men were Wiley Coldiron and Bert Hammer.

JAM FOR THE DOUGHBOYS

Seventeen Carloads of It Ordered by Government for the Soldiers Overseas.

Bellingham, Wash.—Seventeen carloads of special jam have been ordered from a Bellingham manufacturer by the government for feeding the doughboys overseas. This is the largest order of the kind ever placed in the West. As this city is in the heart of a famous fruit and berry district, government purchasing agents are assured of having the order quickly filled.

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.—Adv.

Test of Temper.

"Isn't it rather hard to be an optimist and a commuter at the same time?"

"It takes patience and perseverance," said the suburbanite. "I commuted nearly ten years before I got so I could maintain my equanimity when other passengers read the headlines in my newspaper and then fell to arguing about what they had read."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Successful Portable Kitchen.

A portable kitchen was used with success in Wilmington, Del., to teach the children how to conserve food. It was transported from school to school as the work required. An exhibition was given of the five varieties of Liberty bread that the children made from conservation recipes in the prize contest conducted by the woman's committee of the state.

BUT NOT ALL ARE LIKE THAT

Washington Woman an Exception in That She Could Get Mad and Then "Make Up."

Eve was mad with Adam. When he spoke she answered with that little grunt all of us make when we get ready, but no one on earth could spell. Occasionally she would turn from the window and look that other thing we call "daggers" at him and then turn her back on him again, as if she was through with him forever in this world, and, of course, the next. But Adam was patient—which shows what experience will do.

They got up at Seventh street and, as they stood up in the aisle to wait their turn to string out, she hooked her hand into his coat sleeve and remarked, with an engaging flippancy that it didn't seem possible could come from such a silent, grumpy woman:

"All right, hon. Consider yourself forgiven. I've thought up all the swear words I know and chewed every nail to the quick—besides, I was wrong, anyhow."

The two went off as jolly as sandpipers—allowing sandpipers to be as jolly as the adage makes them out to be—and that's all, only—

If all Adams and Eves fussed and made up like that, what would the poor divorce lawyers do for automobiles?—Washington Star.

MADE MARCHING MEN SMILE

Appeal of Groups of Parisian Midinettes Got Desired Results From Passing British Soldiers.

The Paris Figaro recounts the following picturesque episode at a review recently, which admirably expressed the enthusiastic admiration of the Parisian crowd for the British soldiers. The latter marched past, stern and impassive. Groups of midinettes observed that the soldiers were not smiling. "Smile, please, smile," they cried in French. The men did not falter, but continued to march, grave and meditative, because they did not understand. "Cry 'Smile' to them," a linguist in the crowd suggested, whereupon the group of midinettes cried in English, "Smile, please, smile." And then the British smiled, to the great delight of the girls.

L'Oeuvre writes: "We may say without hesitation, because we know we shall be understood by our incomparable Polius, that it was the British troops, and especially the Scotch, who produced the greatest impression."

Keep Yourself Fit

You can't afford to be laid up with sore, aching kidneys in these days of high prices. Some occupations bring kidney troubles; almost any work makes weak kidneys worse. If you feel tired all the time, and suffer with lame back, sharp pains, dizzy spells, headache and disordered kidney action, use Doan's Kidney Pills. It may save an attack of rheumatism, dropsy, or Bright's disease. Doan's have helped thousands back to health.

An Illinois Case

R. J. Henderson, Alton, Ill., says: "Hard work and heavy lifting weakened my kidneys. My back was in bad shape and I couldn't walk without sharp pains shooting through me. I was sore and stiff and felt tired and languid. The kidney secretions passed too often and were scanty and some nights I had to get up a dozen times. Nothing gave me any real benefit until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They soon had me feeling much better and continued use benefited me in every way."

Honest Advertising.

THIS is a topic we all hear now-a-days because so many people are inclined to exaggerate. Yet has any physician told you that we claimed unreasonable remedial properties for Fletcher's Castoria? Just ask them. We won't answer it ourselves, we know what the answer will be.

That it has all the virtues to-day that was claimed for it in its early days is to be found in its increased use, the recommendation by prominent physicians, and our assurance that its standard will be maintained.

Imitations are to be found in some stores and only because of the Castoria that Mr. Fletcher created. But it is not the genuine Castoria that Mr. Fletcher Honestly advertised, Honestly placed before the public and from which he Honestly expects to receive his reward.

Children Cry For

Fletcher's CASTORIA

Extracts from Letters by Grateful Parents to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Mrs. John W. Derrick, of Lexington, S. C., says: "My children cry for Castoria, I could not do without it."

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gaines, of Ripley, Tenn., say: "We enclose our baby's picture hoping it will induce some poor tired mothers to give your Castoria a trial. We have used it since baby was two weeks old."

Mrs. J. G. Farman, of Nashville, Tenn., says: "The perfect health of my baby is due to your Castoria—the first and only medicine he has taken. He is never satisfied with one dose, he always cries for more."

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Johnson, of Stevens Point, Wis., say: "When our baby was two weeks old he cried so much we did everything for him, then got some Castoria and he is now strong and fat. We would not be without it, and are very thankful to you."
